1. 会议简介

Brief Introduction to the Conference

中美高校图书馆合作发展论坛是由中国高校人文社会科学文献中心和北美中国研究图书馆员学会以及会议承办方所在高校联合主办的图书情报学精品国际学术论坛。第一届于2011年在厦门大学举办，主题为“地区研究与大学图书馆资源建设”，第二届于2013年在兰州大学举办，主题为“中国周边国家文献资源的收集、整理和共享服务”，第三届于2015年在四川大学举办，主题为“演变中的学术环境和图书馆：资源建设新方向”，第四届于2017年3月在加拿大的多伦多大学举办，主题为“高校图书馆知识服务新方向”，第五届于2019年7月在内蒙古大学举办，主题为“图书馆与社会发展”。

2020年全球大流行的“新型冠状病毒”对高校教育科研、人才培养和国际交流产生了巨大影响。随着疫情的消退，反思和探索疫情重袭与后疫情时代高校图书馆文献与服务意义重大。本届论坛主题为“后疫情时代高校图书馆文献与服务新方向”。自2021年6月9日发出会议通知后，已收到来自大陆、港台、北美和欧洲等地区144家机构的积极响应，报名参会逾350人。本次论坛将有力推进中美图书馆员在后疫情时代高校图书馆文献保障及服务方面的深度合作与发展。

The Sino-American Academic Library Forum for Cooperation and Development is the international academic forum of library and information science, co-organized by the China Academic Social Sciences and Humanities Libraries (CASHL), and the Society of Chinese Studies Librarians (SCSL), with the joint sponsorship of the university library who hosts the forum. The first forum was hosted by Xiamen University in 2011 with the theme on Regional Research and Research Libraries' Resource Construction. The second was hosted by Lanzhou University in 2013 with the theme on Collection, Management and Sharing of the Resources in China's Neighboring Nations. The third was hosted by Sichuan University in 2015 with the theme on Changing Academic Environment and Library: New Directions in Resource Construction. The fourth was hosted by University of Toronto in 2017 with the theme on New Directions in Knowledge Service for University Libraries. The fifth was hosted by Inner Mongolia University in 2019 with the theme on Library and Social Development.

In 2020, the global pandemic of Covid-19 had a tremendous impact on teaching, research and learning in higher education institutions, as well as professional development and international exchanges. As the coronavirus pandemic starts subsiding, it becomes imperative for academic libraries to reflect on and explore how to proactively prepare for possible resurgence of the pandemic, and how to ensure libraries' collections and services are accessible to patrons during the post-pandemic era. The theme for the Sixth Sino-American Academic Library Forum for Collaboration and Development is Academic Library Resources and Services: New Directions in the Post-Pandemic Era. Since the forum announcement on June 9, 2021, there have been very positive responses from 144 institutions in China, (including Hong Kong and Taiwan), North American and Europe, with over 350 registered participants. The forum will play an important role in advancing in-depth collaboration and development between academic libraries in China and North America in resource development and services in the post-pandemic era.
