

The heatmap displays a 25x25 matrix with a clear diagonal pattern. The diagonal elements are dark blue, while the off-diagonal elements are light blue. The matrix is symmetric, with the same pattern of values mirrored across the diagonal. The values on the diagonal are consistently high, while the values off the diagonal are consistently low.

