Choose a Better Explanation

Please read the following three pairs of explanations and for each pair choose the one that explains better why the video is funny.

Explanation #1.

The delivery of the line "I got the coffees!" is delivered with an exaggerated enthusiasm, which is funny in itself. The response of "Ah!" is delivered with a surprised and relieved expression, which adds to the comedic effect. The combination of the two lines creates a humorous moment that elicits a laugh from the viewer.

Explanation #2.

The video starts with a man on a skateboard holding onto a pile of cups, and then the audio caption of a skateboard breaking in the background of a speech is heard. The man then falls to the ground by the trash cans, and the next scene shows a guy on a skateboard wearing a bandana. The last scene shows the same skateboarder walking next to a truck, which implies that he was the one who broke the skateboard.

Q. Which one provides more clear explanation of why it is funny, including video content?
