Utterances:
 Are you looking for mobile Internet or for a landline connection?
 Are you looking for mobile Internet or for a landline connection? Let me explain the differences to you. If you decide on mobile Internet you will be able to access the Internet from almost anywhere in Ireland. Experience shows considering mobile Internet is wise when you are travelling a lot. A landline connection on the other hand restricts your Internet access to your home. However this connection type is usually more stable and offers higher bandwidth.
