

FOOD ASSISTANCE 2021-2022 Resiliency Grants Program

The WSDA Food Assistance Resiliency Grants Program,

formerly named the Flexible Funding Grants Program, was funded through the Washington State Legislature to build resiliency in the hunger relief system. This grant was open to all eligible hunger relief agencies, Tribes, and tribal organizations statewide, whether or not they were previously contracted with WSDA to distribute food assistance.

Visit agr.wa.gov/grants for more information on this and future grant opportunities.

AWARDED APPLICATIONS BY REGION

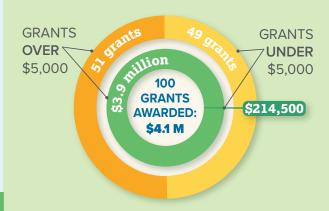

AWARDED ORGANIZATIONS BY TYPE

^{*} Currently contracted agencies are hunger relief organizations, Tribes, and tribal organizations that participate in WSDA Food Assistance programs. Agencies not currently contracted are organizations not currently participating in WSDA Food Assistance programs.

100 grants awarded in 2022

Projects funded include:

Staffing, living wages

Gleaning program expansion

Warehouse equipment

Facility renovations

Coolers, freezers

Delivery vehicles

And more...

