

Index

A

- Activity-Centred Analysis and Design, 116–118, 242
- Activity-System-Analysis (ASA), 201
- Activity theory, 198
- Actor Network Theory, 198, 215
- Artificial intelligence (AI), 171
 - automation and algorithmization, 174
 - bias issues, 181
 - built-in bias, 181
 - Chatbots, 176
 - conceptual and methodological work, 183
 - controversy mapping, 184
 - descriptive accounts, 182
 - gauge public perception, 172
 - IBM's system, 180
 - infused work practices, 173
 - learning analytics (LA) systems, 177
 - machine-learning algorithms, 173
 - networked learning scholarship, 171
 - open Data movement, 175
 - predictive algorithms, 176
 - professional services, 183
 - professional workers, 172
 - public perception, 183
 - trusting co-workers, 177–179
 - uneasy alliance, 182
- Augmented reality (AR), 102
- Automating Society report, 184

B

- Blockchain technology, 164, 166, 167
 - cryptography, 164

- database transactions, 164
- potential disruption, 164
- tutorial model, 168
- Woolf University's White Paper, 165
 - incentive problem, 165
 - market liquidity problem, 165
 - market-maker problem, 165
 - opaque barrier problem, 165
 - techno-fetishism, 166
- Building Digital Literacy (BDL), 94

C

- Cape Higher Education Consortium (CHEC), 21
- Collaborative autoethnographic (CAE) methodology, 54, 56, 105–107
- Collaborative design spaces, 76
 - CourseBuilder, 82
 - collaborative qualities, 87
 - networked learning communities, 88
 - teachers, 89
 - Design Based Research, 77
 - educational materials among teachers, 79–81
 - e-learning skills, 76
 - future research, 89
 - internetBook, 83
 - methodology, 81
 - professional instructors, 85–87
 - quantitative documentation, 81
 - re-design and co-design process, 78
 - sharing and cloning, 85
 - System CourseBuilder, 77, 82

Collaboratorium, 75
 Collection titles and artifact count, 111
 College-educated people, 93
 Combining platform technology, 164
 Contextual factors, 216
 CourseBuilder, 76
 COVID-19, 105
 Cultural Historical Activity theory, 197

D

Decision-making processes, 254
 Design for learning, 245
 Design thinking, 20
 blended learning, 22
 context and intervention blended learning course design, 22
 design-based research approach, 25, 26
 learning experience design process, 23, 24
 criticism of, 21
 findings and discussion
 creativity, 28, 29
 feedback mechanism, 29
 interaction and collaboration, 26
 learning metaphors, 29
 nurturing empathy, 27
 ongoing evaluation, 29
 time commitment, 30
 transferring theory, 30
 higher education in South Africa, 20
 instructional design models, 21
 networked learning, 22
 potential of, 21
 Digital infrastructure, 200
 Digital learning platforms, 199, 200 objectives, 200
 platforms, 200
 Digital literacy, 93, 98, 102, 104, 106, 107, 110
 Digital Resident-Digital Visitor spectrum, 214
 Digital technologies, 191, 192
 Disruption, 159
 Airbnb and Uber, 160
 cultural vocabulary, 160

E

Educational materials, 240
 Embodied cognition, 192
 Enactive pedagogy agency, 198
 practical action and agency, 195
 situated and embodied, 195
 theoretical approach, 197

Enactivism, 192, 199
 autonomy, 192
 design workshop, 202
 educational settings, 189
 emotional demands, 190
 enactive modelling, 204
 interventions, 202
 learner-centred environments, 190 social and cultural interaction, 190 teachers and digital platform, 203
 teaching and learning practices, 190 theoretical framework, 190
 Epistemic games, 120

F

Fabric artifacts, 104
 Fabric assignments, 108
 Fabric collections, 97
 Fabric of Digital Life, 94, 96, 97
 Fast Food da Política (FFDP), 115
 ACAD framework, 118
 ACAD lenses, 125
 ACAD wireframe, 119
 COVID-19 outbreak, 130
 critical pedagogy, 128
 data collection, 122
 fierce champions, 128
 formal and informal educational settings, 128
 learning network, 121
 micro level, 125
 AMATRA XV, 127
 Jigsaw game, 126
 social and material elements, 125
 super-sized version, 126
 not-for-profit organization, 117 political structures in Brazil, 123
 social media and crowdsourced funding, 129
 Flexible Learning Design (FLD), 60
 Future workshop, 201, 204

G

Game playing, 121
 Games and learning, 120
 Gamification techniques, 120

H

HE institutions (HEIs), 233
 Hybrid learning, 249, 251

I

Ideological underpinnings, 166
 Image processing, 182
 Innovating education, 239, 240, 255
 Inquiry approach, 146
 Interaction Mode, 218
 Interlocking educational networks, 163
 International Conference on Networked Learning (NLC), 237 Intervention-based research project, 200

J

JISC Digital Capability Framework, 102, 103

L

Large scale non-institutional educational infrastructure, 163
 Laurillard's notion, 76
 Learning Management Systems (LMS), 160
 Learning stresses, 249

M

Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs), 160
 Multidirectional interaction, 199

N

Networked learning, 95, 118, 166, 190, 193, 198, 212, 214, 215, 218, 222, 232, 233
 cognition, 244, 251–253
 community, 238
 community members and learning resources, 6 complexity of online, 248–251
 definition, 1, 3, 238
 design for collaboration, 245–248
 development, 240–242 distinctive theory, 3
 equity issues, 238
 ethics, 253–255
 higher education, 243, 245
 innovating education and work, 237 institutional contexts, 244
 integrate human and AI systems, 243 knowledge community, 2
 learning platform, 244
 learning theory, 7
 logistic decision, 4
 macrolevel network studies, 244

Networked Practice Inquiry approach, 242 online learning, 5
 pedagogy, 243
 politics, 253–255
 professional learning, 11, 238–240
 re-conceptualise, 9, 10 requirements, 243
 researchers, 5
 social constructivism, 244
 social justice, 10, 238
 social structure, 243
 sociocultural theories of learning, 6 technology, 5, 238
 technology-mediated educational formats, 242
 unorthodox approach, 4
 use of digital resources, 240–242
 work-learning practices, 243
 Networked Learning Conference series, 2, 3
 Networked Learning Editorial Collective (NLEC), 9, 37
 Networked learning perspective, 190
 Networked learning research, 8
 Networked professional development (NPD) advocacy and usefulness, 66
 CAE methodology, 54, 56, 57
 certification, 68
 champions and mentors, 67
 choice and agency, 67
 collaborative online learning activities, 63
 connectivist learning principles, 65
 COVID-19, 69
 definition, 54
 dimensions, 57, 58
 engagement, 61
 EqU, 64
 cMOOC, 65
 curriculum, 65
 supportive learning community, 65
 facilitators and course participants, 63
 facilitators and participants, 68
 FLD, 60
 higher education (HE), 54
 indirect approach, 55
 networked learning, 55
 online course module, 61
 participants, 61
 UCT short-course certificate, 62

O

Objectivism, 204
 Open Educational Practices (OEP), 116
 Open Educational Resources (OER), 116

P

Pedagogical approaches, 191
 Personal Learning Environment (PLE), 212
 Personal Learning Networks (PLNs) active and passive social media, 211 activities, 221
 attitudes, 221
 availability and affordability, 211
 community, 212
 contexts, 221
 Covid-19 pandemic, 212
 creator, 213
 data analysis, 219, 220
 design, 213–217
 digital interaction modes, 221 diverse academic fields, 211 elements, 213
 ethnic group, 233
 evolution, 211
 HE student, 231, 232
 human interaction endpoints, 223
 humans and non-humans, 222
 implications, 233
 methodology, 218
 MOOC-based data collection
 methodology, 220
 network map, 220
 network preferences, 229–231
 network size, 223, 224
 network use, 225–227, 229
 non-human interaction endpoints, 223 preferences, 233
 social media platforms, 222
 type of interaction, 213
 Phenomenology, 194
 Platform Cooperativism Consortium, 162
 Productive ambiguity, 102

S

Scandinavian design traditions, 79
 Self-eco-organisation, 193
 Situated cognition, 192, 194
 Smart learning tools, 161
 Social constructivism, 189–191, 214
 Social media, 232
 Social Network Analysis, 215
 Social Network Services, 216
 Social Sciences, 214 Socio-cultural mediation, 191
 Sociotechnical Theory, 212, 215
 Statistical significance testing, 219, 220
 Students viewpoint

ACAD framework, 143
 contextualising literature, 140
 course on community, 146
 digital application, 145
 formal learning spaces, 149 inquiry project implementation, 141 interpretative approach, 142 interviewed participants, 142
 lecture room, 143
 Maltese context, 141
 networked learning, 138
 networked practice inquiry implementation, 150
 Participants' comments, 149 part-time students, 144
 peer learning process, 151
 peer-reviewing, 147
 postdigital existence, 137
 research contextualisation, 139 research participants, 146, 148
 technology proficiency, 141
 Twitter connect, 150
 vague affirmation, 148
 virtual learning environment (VLE), 144
 weekend workshops, 146
 System modelling, 216

T

Techno-fetishism, 166
 Technological unemployment, 167
 Technology-driven disruptor, 167
 Trust, 161
 Twitter Scavenger Hunt activities, 68

V

Virtual Learning Environment (VLE), 212
 Vocational Education and Training (VET), 239
 boundary crossing, 38
 boundary objects, 40
 data collection phase, 44
 design model
 ICTs, 42
 matrix, 45
 pedagogical tool, 42
 dual principle, 37
 ICT-based boundary objects, 38, 47, 48
 interviewed, 48
 learning process, 41
 boundary crossing, 45–47
 networked learning, 37, 50
 pedagogical challenges, 38

research questions, methods, and expected outcome, 39
social relationships, 40
students participation, 40

W
Web Science, 215
World Wide Web, 211