Journal of Song-Yuan Studies is an annual publication devoted to promoting scholarship in all disciplines related to Middle Period China, with an especial focus on the Song, Liao, Jin, Xia and Yuan dynasties. Memberships are $40 for individuals ($25 for retired scholars and students) and $85 for institutions. For memberships, go to <https://songyuan.org/membership.html>. To purchase back issues, please contact Erik Lyngen, Publications Assistant, Institute of East Asian Studies–UCB, Publications Department, 1995 University Avenue, Suite 520N, Berkeley, CA 94704-2318 (ieas-orders@berkeley.edu).

Scholars are encouraged to submit manuscripts of articles, bibliographies, and research notes. All submissions are evaluated by referees. Except for bibliographies, manuscripts should be in English, typed double-spaced (including quotations and footnotes), and submitted as electronic files. Submissions should follow The Chicago Manual of Style; for our Style Sheet, go to <https://songyuan.org/Downloads/JSYSStyleSheet.pdf>. Contributors to the Journal receive ten offprints of their work.

Correspondence concerning manuscripts should be sent to the Editor; correspondence concerning book reviews should be sent directly to the Book Review Editor. Membership inquiries should be sent to Prof. Man Xu, East Hall 007, History Department, Tufts University, Medford, MA 02155; Man.Xu@tufts.edu
