What is Pixelbuddha

Hi, we're Pixelbuddha, a design studio based in Volgograd, and we are happy to see you on our website. Here you can find free and premium graphic design resources of the highest quality since 2014.

In 2017 we launched our premium membership we called Pixelbuddha Plus. Since then, we tirelessly work to grow this precisely curated library of various design resources created by our team or licensed from the most talented creators in the industry.

By creating an account on Pixelbuddha website, you accept all the following terms. Please, read the entire document carefully, and decide whether you're willing to follow them or not. Please note that all our products and services are intended for people older than 18 years old. You cannot use the website if you're younger than 18 years old.

Freebie Resources

Weekly, we publish graphic design resources available for free download or available after registration and opting in for our email newsletter, but with no payments whatsoever. They are licensed to you under the terms of the Pixelbuddha Freebie License.

You can download and modify Freebie Resources to use in your projects. We do not ask for you to include any attribution to Pixelbuddha studio. We do however appreciate if you credit our resources and help spread the word about us.

Prohibitions

You cannot redistribute, resell, lease, license, sub-license, or offer our resources to any third party. This includes uploading our resources to other sites or media-sharing services, and offering our resources as a separate attachment from any of your work.

Products For Sale

We ask you to contact us to determine the proper use of our resources before including any part of them into an item designed to be sold on a website or marketplace. If you're going to use the resources from our library for the End Product for Sale, that would require an extended license. We are not legally liable for any misuse of Freebie resources.

Premium Membership

To become a Pixelbuddha Plus member, you need to create an account on our website, pick one of the billing plans, and proceed to PayPal auto-renewal payment. If you don't have a PayPal account, you will need to create one to become a Pixelbuddha Plus member. After your payment is successfully processed, your Plus Membership activates and is valid by the moment you decide to cancel it, or your auto-renewal payment fails twice.

All Plus resources are licensed to you under the terms of the Pixelbuddha Commercial License. After your membership is canceled or expired, your access to the Plus library will be immediately removed. Also, your license to the resources you already downloaded and/or store on your devices would expire as well.

Our memberships are not to be shared with other users. If the membership is owned by a company, only its direct employees can use the account on behalf of the company. We grant special rights to educational establishments for them to be able to use our resources with their students without having to create multiple accounts. If you are representing such a facility, please get in touch with us for more details.
