

Can I change my insurance plan(s) after initial or open enrollment?

Insurance plans can be changed either during open enrollment or if you experience a qualifying event after the open enrollment period ends. Per IRS rules, changes must be made within 30 days of the qualifying event. Contact an RPS payroll officer to find out if you've had a qualifying event and for instructions on how to change your benefits.