Wolters Kluwer has a dedicated and experienced team that handles translation, rights, licensing, and reprints sales for our journals and books. We have a track record of success with a strong international reach of translated and local editions and reprints across the entire journal and book portfolio.

In general, Wolters Kluwer licenses full-text books, and journal editions excerpted from the full published issue. Journal translations typically publish on a regular schedule, in line with the English edition. All table of contents and article selection are subject to editorial approval of the originating publications. There is an opportunity for appropriate sponsorship, local advertising and academic translations that are subject to agreement and approvals. Wolters Kluwer works closely with its Association and Society Partners to license international arrangements that are in line with the Association and Society missions. The Translation, Rights, Licensing, and Reprints team also works closely with the in-house editorial team with proprietary publications.

If you are interested in publishing a translation/local edition or reprint please request an option on the title(s) for the language/territory in which you are interested. If an option is available, the Wolters Kluwer team will be happy to work with you. Options are generally granted on a 90-day basis.

Wolters Kluwer has a strong presence at the Frankfurt, London, and Beijing Book Fairs and welcomes the opportunity to meet with translators, publishers, distributors, and vendors at these and other events throughout the year. Please feel free to contact the team in order to arrange appointments to discuss opportunities with us.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.
