

Fellowship Roundtable

October 7, 2004

National Research Council of the National Academies
2001 Wisconsin Avenue, Room 104
Washington, DC, 20007

8:30 a.m. Light Continental Breakfast

9:00 a.m. Welcomes & Introductions

H. Ray Gamble, Director of Fellowships, Policy & Global Affairs,
National Academies

Self identification of participants

9:30 a.m. An Overview of NSF International Programs

Susan Parris, Program Manager, IOSE, National Science Foundation

Anthony Teolis, Program Specialist, OISE, National Science Foundation

10:30 a.m. Break

10:45 a.m. Mentoring Fellowship Recipients

Christine O'Brien, Program Officer, Ford Diversity Fellowships, National Academies, Session Moderator

Richard McGee, Director of Graduate Student Affairs, Graduate Partnerships Program, National Institutes of Health

Irene Hulede, Manager, Student Programs, American Society for Microbiology

Virginia Wiggins, Manager, Student Relations, Semiconductor Research Corporation

11:45 a.m. Lunch

1:00 p.m. The Role of Federal Fellowship Programs in Funding U.S. Graduate Education

Peggy Petrochenkov, Program Officer, Fellowships Office, National Academies, Session Moderator

All representatives of Federal Agencies attending the meeting will be welcome to provide input. This session is intended as a true roundtable session with wide participation.

2:30 p.m. Open Forum and Feedback