

Supplementary Figure 2 Stimulation of PBMC from uninfected individuals with plasma from HIV-infected and uninfected individuals. PBMC from HIV-uninfected individuals were cultured with 25% heat inactivated plasma from uninfected or HIV-infected individuals for 3 days for T and B cell activation or overnight for monocyte activation followed by staining for relevant activation markers as shown. Wilcoxon's matched pairs test was used to determine statistical differences.