Every Gymglish, Frantastique, Hotel Borbollón, Wunderbla and Saga Baldoria Product allows Users to receive and complete a maximum of seven

Depending on the chosen Product or offer (Basic, Premium or Gold) our subscriptions allow Users to receive and complete a maximum of seven Lessons per week.

Depending on the chosen offer (Basic, Premium or Gold), users may choose the days of the week when they wish to receive their Lessons with a minimum of one Lesson per week and within the limit of seven lessons per week maximum, or a maximum of one lesson per day, as previously indicated. By default, the Company sends the new Lesson on the first available day of reception depending on the User's response. Failing to receive a response from the User, the Company sends a reminder for the same Lesson on the first available day of reception seventy-two hours after the last mailing. Users can also set, in their Lesson or in their personal space, a period when Lessons may be paused (Manage my Absences in the Workbook), if this option is offered. This option affects neither the price nor the time period of the Gymglish, Frantastique, Hotel Borbollón, Wunderbla or Saga Baldoria Subscriptions bought.

Gymglish's, Frantastique's, Hotel Borbollón's, Wunderbla's, Saga Baldoria's content may offend certain users due to its tone, possible references to adultery, common cultural stereotypes in North America and in Europe, which may be perceived as immoral in other cultures or other parts of the world. Therefore, these Products are not recommended for underage individuals. The Company cannot be held responsible for any consequences related to the content of the Lessons.

The User can use the Aimigo Coach feature after each lesson. This feature, based on artificial intelligence models, allows the user to chat in oral or written form with a character from Gymglish, Frantastique, Hotel Borbollón, Wunderbla or Saga Baldoria products should they have the appropriate subscription.

The Aimigo subscription allows for discussion with our artificial intelligence, both orally and in writing, only in the available languages. Each Aimigo subscription covers one language only. Aimigo is available via the App.

Aimigo can chat with you, both orally and in writing

4.2.3 Description of the Features of the Rich Morning Show Website

The Rich Morning Show caters towards teenagers and English beginners. It includes three sequences of twenty-one Lessons, incorporating twenty-one videos of the curriculum in ascending order of difficulty. If all sixty-three lessons are completed, the Service then focuses on the revision of knowledge. By default, the Company sends the new Lesson on the first available day of reception depending on the User's response. Failing to receive a response from the User, the Company sends a reminder for the same Lesson on the first available day of reception seventy-two (72) hours after the last mailing.

The Rich Morning Show Service is designed for adolescents and beginners, and consists of three sequences of twenty-one Lessons followed by exercises.

4.2.4 Description of the Features of Aimigo Studio Products

The features of Aimigo Studio Products, Services using Aimigo Studio technology operated by the Company for which content is published by third parties, are defined on a case by case basis, detailed on the pages of the Site relevant to them.

4.3 Acceptance of the Order

The Client accepts to pay the set amount due for the provision of the Service, regardless of the number of Lessons actually completed or conversations carried out. The order is completed via the Website or the Applications. Clients choose the offer(s) they wish to subscribe to. When the Client makes his purchase in the Application from Apple or Google, specific conditions apply: see section 5.2.

To purchase, Clients indicate their personal details and payment information. The Client is responsible for the accuracy of all the information provided to the Company and payment service providers, including their address and country of residence, which are required to accurately know the rate of European VAT to which the Client is subject. The Client also ensures that they will provide the accurate first name and last name for any User they sign up.

Clients may confirm their order after having viewed its details, total price, including all fees and taxes. They will have the opportunity to correct any errors. The contract is created upon the validation of the order of the Subscription(s) by the Company. Within the limits prescribed by applicable law, the validation of the order constitutes an electronic signature between the Parties - equivalent to a handwritten signature between the Parties.

The Company must receive and validate the payment no later than 45 days after the Subscription. If the payment is not received within this period, the Company may cancel the order and delete the Subscription.

In the event the User(s) do not use the Service, except if the case is provided for in the Article ?? "Right of Withdrawal", the Company shall not have to reimburse all or part of the purchase because the Subscription consists in the provision of the Service regardless if the Subscription is used or not.

The Subscription packages, described more specifically in the online shop via the Website or Applications, may be separated into two large families of Subscriptions:

4.3.1 "Unlimited Time Period" Subscriptions

When this offer is available on our web store (which is not always the case), the Aimigo, Gymglish, Frantastique, Wunderbla, Saga Baldoria, Hotel Borbollón or Rich Morning Show Subscription may be purchased for a "Unlimited Time Period", i.e. a subscription of one month, renewable automatically every month. The Client may terminate the "Unlimited Time Period" Subscription(s) at any time by going to his/her personal webspace, subject to having requested the cancellation no later than three (3) days before the end of the Subscription period in progress. The service will continue until the subscribed period expires. Cancellation does not give right to any refund, partial or total, of the current subscribed period or to a carry-over of uncompleted Lessons. In the event of a change in the public price of Subscriptions, the "Unlimited Time Period" Subscription offer chosen by the Client will remain unchanged in terms of monthly payments, as long as the Subscription is not canceled.

4.3.2 "Fixed Length" Subscription(s)

The Aimigo, Gymglish, Frantastique, Wunderbla, Saga Baldoria, Hotel Borbollón or Rich Morning Show Subscription may be chosen for a "Fixed Length", that is, a number of months defined in the description of the package. The Client is committed for the entire period from one date to a fixed date in the future and may receive a maximum number of Lessons as described in the package. The price and time period of the Subscription are described in the Website shop at

The Client agrees to settle the complete sum of the Subscription all at once or by monthly installments.

The Unlimited Time Period Subscription is automatically renewed every month and may be stopped at any time.

the time of purchase. The Fixed-Length subscriptions may be renewed automatically for a period equal to or less than the original period. In this case, an email or notification will be sent to the Client one month before the expiry date, and again one week before the expiry date, allowing them to refuse the renewal of their subscription. The Client may also deactivate the automatic renewal at any time in their Client space.

4.4 Commitment Over Time

For all Services, registration to a Subscription means a commitment for a period of time and not for a given number of lessons. Once the User subscribes to the Service, the User can choose to follow (or not to follow) a maximum of seven Lessons per week depending on the offer (as displayed on our website). If the User chooses to follow, or not to follow Lessons, there is no impact on the payment of the Subscription. In the case of regular payments, if the payment information held by the Company was no longer valid, an update could be requested to the Client, in order for the Offer to continue. The Client agrees to update such information in the shortest possible time.

The Subscription is the provision of the Service for the fixed period specified at the time of the purchase, regardless of the number of Lessons followed by the User.

5 PRICES AND PAYMENT CONDITIONS

5.1 Price

The Company's offers are invoiced according to prices displayed in the Website shop or in the Application at the time of purchase - the offer is valid for two hours after its display time.

The Company reserves the right to change the price at any time during the offer period. Any revision is applicable only to deals subscribed after the new prices go into effect. Offers do not include the cost of an Internet access required to access the Services, which remains the responsibility of the Client.

Prices are available on both the Website and Applications. They can be modified by the Company.

5.2 In-App Purchases on Apple Store and Google Play

The Company may offer services available for purchase within the Applications on third-party platforms such as Apple Store and Google Play ("In-App Purchases"). If you choose to make purchases through these platforms, you acknowledge that their terms of sale apply and you accept them in addition to these terms. The Company does not control the Apple Store and Google Play platforms and cannot be held responsible for any issues related to their use: the User who chooses to make purchases through these platforms acknowledges that they will have to manage their commercial relationship with these platforms without involving the Company. It is therefore the platform that will provide the invoice to the Customer and not the Company.

Some services may be offered as automatically renewing subscriptions. If you purchase such a subscription, it will be renewed at the end of the period, unless cancelled, at the price applicable at that time. To avoid renewal for the following period, cancellation must take place before the end of the current period (according to the terms of the platform). Deleting your account or application does not cancel your subscription. To manage or cancel your subscription, you must use the account settings of the external platform (e.g. Apple Store or Google Play) through which the subscription was purchased. Purchases through platforms are generally non-refundable, and no credit is given for partially used periods. Requests for refunds or cancellations for eligible subscribers must be made through the platform from which the purchase was made."

5.3 Payment Conditions

Payments to the Company can be made:

- by credit card when the payment method is proposed (note: a 1 Euro preauthorization fee is sometimes required to verify the card's existence before finalizing the purchase. This small sum temporarily appears on the statement of transactions for about two weeks, but is then refunded when the actual amount corresponding to the purchase is deducted);
- by bank transfer when this payment method is proposed;
- by Paypal when this payment method is proposed;
- by any other means of payment proposed at the time of the purchase.

Payment of Aimigo, Gymglish, Frantastique, Wunderbla, Saga Baldoria, Hotel Borbollón or Rich Morning Show Subscriptions is done either by recurring

Note: purchasing our products through the Apple Store or Google Play means accepting their terms and conditions in addition to our own.

Payment can be made either via monthly debits or via a single transaction.

debits, or in a single transaction at the time of purchase.

The Company is not liable for payment problems related to the operation of electronic commerce services.

Receipts issued by the Company are available for Clients in their personal web space. Receipts and/or notifications of payment can be issued in the name of A9 or in the name of GYMGLISH, main trademark of the Company, regardless of the Product or Service purchased.

It is agreed that, if the payment was canceled after acceptance of the order, the offer(s) subscribed is (are) also canceled, without prejudice to any action that the Company could take. Furthermore, in case of non-respect of payment obligations, it shall be noted that the bonus months granted to the Client, as well as any sponsorship benefits, will be canceled.

6 LEVEL

Depending on the Product and the chosen offer, and as the case may be depending on average completion of more than two Lessons per week, the Company will issue the User a certificate of level at the end of the Subscription purchased by the Client. This certificate will show the result of continuous assessment throughout the training. To this effect, Users undertake to complete their Lessons personally and any Supervisors undertake to implement appropriate measures to ensure this is the case.

7 SPONSORSHIP

The User has the possibility to send his/her contacts, either by email or through a copy of a customized link on social medias, an invitation to test the Service. If this person accepts, he/she will be considered the "Referral" of the User. If several Users sponsor the same person, only the first to have done so will be considered the Sponsor (this is determined by the e-mail address of this person). The Sponsor can enjoy benefits described in the Workbook. The Company agrees to apply its Privacy Policy to all "Referrals".

The User can invite his/her contacts to try the Service. All these new "Referrals" allow the User to benefit from advantages.

8 ASSISTANCE

For any information, the Company's customer service is available through the Website, mostly on <https://> help.gymglish.com, via email by using the address support@gymglish.com, via chat in our online shop or by telephone at +33 1 53 33 02 40. We invite our Clients to use our email support system which ensures the best traceability.

Depending on the Product and the offer (as displayed on our website), individual teaching assistance from linguistic experts and content writers may be provided to the User at the end of the Lesson, if a reasonable request is made. The Company will respond to assistance requests within 24 working hours.

Depending on the Product and the offer, each User can have access to a personal space on the Site, which organizes and presents content based on lessons completed, including vocabulary, grammar and stories.

The Company offers Clients online help Websites, as well as assistance by email.

You have access to a personal space summarizing your data

9 RIGHT TO WITHDRAWAL

Regarding the Subscriptions purchased from the Company, the Client has a fourteen (14) day right of withdrawal from the date of order to exercise his/her right to withdrawal without having to justify reasons or pay a penalty to the Company, providing the Services have not been used.

To exercise his/her right of withdrawal, the Client must notify the Company of his/her decision to withdraw by sending an explicit e-mail to support@gymglish.com. In this case, the Company will immediately acknowledge this withdrawal and having received the email. In case of withdrawal of the Client, the reimbursement of the order is made by the Company if possible by the same means of payment used during the initial transaction, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties. In any event, the reimbursement will not result in undue additional costs for the Client. The reimbursement is made in the best possible time, and no later than fourteen days from the date on which the Company is informed of the Client's decision.

Please note that if the ordered Services are used by the Client and/or the User before the fourteen-day period, the Client waives their right of withdrawal, the Service being within the meaning of Article L.121-21-8 of the Consumer Code, a "digital content".
