

External Links

Pursuant to s. 7 para. 1 German Telemedia Act, BLD Bach Langheid Dallmayr Rechtsanwälte Partnerschaftsgesellschaft mbB ("BLD") as content provider is responsible for the "own contents" that are made available for use under www.bld.de or www.bld.eu ("BLD websites") in accordance with general laws.

Own contents are to be distinguished from hyperlinks to websites of other providers ("external links") and the contents provided therein. With the hyperlink on the BLD websites or in newsletters for BLD clients, BLD thus refers to "third-party contents" and makes them accessible for easy use by the linking. A remark in brackets "Will open an external link" makes it clear that these links refer to websites outside BLD websites or newsletters for BLD clients.

If you wish to use the website of the other provider and to take note of the contents provided by it, please gather information on the handling of your personal data by the other provider from the data protection regulations of the other provider. You may find information on the purpose and extent of data collection, on your corresponding rights and on possible settings to protect your sphere of privacy there. Please familiarise yourself with these regulations before using the website of the other provider. As the case may be, data might be transferred automatically to the other provider when accessing this website from your computer. BLD has no influence upon this.

When first setting the external link, BLD examined the third-party contents regarding the question whether a possible civil or criminal responsibility might be triggered by them. It cannot be excluded, however, that the contents will be altered subsequently by the other provider. BLD does not continually check the contents referred to by external links for alterations. If you are of the opinion that the linked external pages are illegal or have other inappropriate contents, please let us know.
