Contributors' Information

Article title (and manuscript #)

The Canadian Journal of Surgery requires that the contributions of each author of the above-mentioned manuscript be provided to the Editorial Office before publication.

To be listed as an author, individuals must have contributed to at least 1 task from each of 3 columns of authorship criteria. (This is outlined in our instructions for authors, published every January.)

Authorship criteria 1. conception and design acquisition of data analysis/interpretation	2. writing of article critical review of article	3.
Individuals who do not meet our authorsh the article.	nip criteria may be listed in an a	cknowledgements section at the end c
Please check the specific cont This information	ributions of each author in t will be published at the end
Author name / signature: Contribution: conception and design acquisition of data analysis/interpretation	☐ writing of article☐ critical review of article	final approval for publication
Author name / signature: Contribution: conception and design acquisition of data analysis/interpretation	writing of article critical review of article	final approval for publication
Author name / signature: Contribution: conception and design acquisition of data analysis/interpretation	☐ writing of article☐ critical review of article	final approval for publication
Author name / signature: Contribution: conception and design acquisition of data analysis/interpretation	writing of article critical review of article	final approval for publication
Author name / signature: Contribution: conception and design acquisition of data analysis/interpretation	writing of article critical review of article	final approval for publication

Please return your completed forms to: Canadian Journal of Surgery by email at cjs@cma.ca.