Annexure: Frequently Asked Questions:

Q1: Can I still apply for other scholarships?

A1: There are no restrictions from for applicants on applying for or accepting any other scholarship or fee waiver offered by the University, Government, or any private organizations. However, we want to make it clear that if you are selected as a Dell Aspire Scholar and subsequently receive another scholarship, particularly a government scholarship that prohibits recipients from accepting additional financial aid, the selected candidates would have the flexibility to choose to accept or not accept the Dell Aspire Scholarship

Q2: When will the Dell Aspire Scholarship Start?

A2: The scholarship will commence from the second semester and continue up to your final semester if you meet the program's eligibility criteria. It is likely to start from February or March 2024.

Q3: What types of financial and non-financial support are included as components of the Dell Aspire Scholarship?

A3: The Dell Aspire Scholarship includes the following:

- Partial College Fee: Rs 30,000 Per Semester (Total: Rs 2,10,000 over 7 Semesters)

- Partial Accommodation: Rs 40,000 Per Semester (Up to: Rs 2,80,000 for 7 Semesters) All scholars staying in the college hostel or college-approved private hostel are eligible for this amount.

- Laptop: A premium quality laptop to support your academic work.

- Upskilling and Mentoring: Selected scholars will receive training and skilling support from industry experts to prepare them for college placements.
