

Co-Facilitator Volunteer Description

Volunteer Reports to: ReconcilingWorks National Office

Position Summary: As a ReconcilingWorks Co-Facilitator, your role will be to support the National Office staff in helping lead trainings, and educating others in their understanding of ReconcilingWorks and the Reconciling in Christ (RIC) Journey. One of the largest ways ReconcilingWorks engages with folx is through trainings, and with a small National Office staff, it can create time restraints in the amount of time we can provide. It is our hope that a co-facilitator will not only help ease that scheduling problem, but also create more opportunity for engagement the holy work of welcome, inclusion, and celebration of people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions. Your support as a co-facilitator opens up new moments for learning and relationship building that would have otherwise been missed.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Support National Office in leading trainings
- Be a local or neighboring resource for those interested in learning about ReconcilingWorks and the RIC Journey
- Lead small group discussions or adult forums to RIC partners and discerning faith communities in their RIC journey

Requirements:

- Knowledge and understanding of operating online training technology (primarily Zoom)
- Attend all four ReconcilingWorks Trainings (10 Hours Total)
- Application and Approval via interview by National Office
- Attend check-in's (virtually) with National Office
 - 1 large group Co-Facilitator meeting
 - 4 one-to-one meetings with National Office
- Complete post-training survey after each training you support National Office staff in

Time Commitment:

- 1-10 Hours a Month
- 2 Year Term

Resources and Support:

- Limited Edition Tote Bag
- Printed Copies of each ReconcilingWorks Resource
- Personal Connection with National Office Staff
