- D. The Data Processing Addendum does not apply to Customer's use of a Product during the Evaluation Period.
- E. Customer must not put production data or data regulated by law or regulation into a Product during an evaluation. If Customer puts that data into a Product during the Evaluation Period, Customer does so at Customer's own risk and RSA will not be responsible for the consequences of that use.

The terms of this Section are agreed allocations of risk constituting part of the consideration for RSA's sale of products and services to Customer and will apply even if there is a failure of the essential purpose of any limited remedy, and regardless of whether a party has been advised of the possibilities of the liabilities.

- A. Limitations on Direct Damages. Except for Customer's obligations to pay the current price list price for products and services, Customer's violation of the restrictions on use of products and services or RSA's or its Affiliates' intellectual property rights, each party's total liability arising out of any Dispute or any matter under this Agreement, is limited to the amount Customer paid to RSA during the twelve months before the date that the matter or Dispute arose for the product, services, or both that are the subject of the Dispute, but excluding amounts received as reimbursement of expenses or payment of taxes but in no event shall exceed US $1,000.

- B. No Indirect Damages. Except for Customer's payment obligations and violation of RSA's or its Affiliates' intellectual property rights, neither RSA nor Customer has liability to the other for special, consequential, exemplary, punitive, incidental, or indirect damages, or for lost profits, loss of revenue, loss or corruption of data, or loss of use, or procurement of substitute products or services.
- C. Regular Back-ups. Customer is solely responsible for its data. Customer must back up its data before RSA performs any remedial, upgrade, or other work on Customer's production systems. If applicable law prohibits exclusion of liability for lost data, then RSA will only be liable for the cost of the typical effort to recover the lost data from Customer's last available back-up.
- D. Limitation Period. Except as stated in this Section, all claims must be made within the period specified by applicable law. If the law allows the parties to specify a shorter period for bringing claims, or the law does not provide a time at all, then claims must be made within twelve months after the cause of action accrues.
