The corresponding author submitting the article identified above (the "Author" and the "Article" respectively) to the Society of Photo-Optical Instrumentation Engineers ("SPIE") for publication as an open access Article in the journal specified above, agrees and certifies on behalf of all coauthors, as follows:

1. License to Publish: In consideration of the review, acceptance, and publication of the Article (including but not limited to text, figures, tables, audio and video content, artwork, abstracts, and supplemental material submitted with the Article) in the journal indicated above, the Author hereby grants to SPIE an irrevocable nonexclusive license to (a) publish, reproduce, distribute, transmit, display, and store the Article in all forms and media, now known or later developed, (b) translate the Article into other languages, create adaptations, summaries, or extracts of the Article or other derivatives based on it and exercise all of the rights set forth in (a) above in such translations, adaptations, summaries, extracts and derivative works; and (c) license others to do any or all of the above. The Author will receive no royalty or other monetary compensation from SPIE. In the event that SPIE does not publish the Article within one year of the date shown above, this license shall be canceled.
2. Author's Warranty and Representations: The Author warrants that (a) the Article is original and has not previously been published elsewhere; (b) this work does not infringe on any copyright or other rights in any other work; (c) all necessary reproduction permissions, licenses, and clearances have been obtained; and (d) copyright in the Article is owned by the authors or the Article is in the public domain.

The Author represents that he/she has been authorized by all coauthors to grant this license to SPIE, and has the full power to do so. If the Article is a work made for hire and the Author's employer owns the copyright, this license must be executed by the Author and signed by an authorized representative of the employer.
3. Open Access Publication and Page Charges: The Author hereby grants an open-access license to SPIE and the public with respect to the Article. The Author agrees to pay the invoiced publication fee, in return for which SPIE agrees to make the Article freely available on the SPIE Digital Library website as part of the journal indicated above and grant the public the nonexclusive right to copy, distribute, and display the published Article in accordance with the Creative Commons Attribution license terms set forth below.
4. Author's Retention of Rights: Ownership of copyright in the Article (if applicable) and all other proprietary rights, including patent rights, remain with the author(s). In addition to any rights under copyright, the author(s) retain the rights (a) to reproduce, distribute, and publicly display the Article in any form or medium; (b) to prepare derivative works from the Article; and (c) to authorize others to make any use of the Article, provided that proper full attribution is given to the original SPIE publication.

WHO SHOULD SIGN. This License must be signed by at least one Author and the Author's employer if the Article was prepared within the scope of the Author's employment or was commissioned by the employer. The Author signing this Agreement represents that he/she is signing it as an authorized agent for and on behalf of all coauthors.
