RT Order-04/2022

Learning assessment under COVID-19 – Amendment and reissue

Taking into account the contents of the Recommendation to scientific and higher education institutions concerning the resumption of on-site teaching and non-teaching activities, issued by the Office of the Minister of Science, Technology and Higher Education on 7 January 2022;

Bearing in mind that the assessment activities continue to take place on-site and given the need to ensure that all students are allowed sit their assessment, I determine the following:

1. Students who cannot attend in person the assessment of the course units during the regular season, for being in isolation due to SARS-CoV2 infection or in prophylactic isolation ordered by the competent health authorities, may sit their assessment during the retake season, upon presentation of the relevant certificate;
2. Students who cannot attend in person the assessment of the course units during the retake season, for being in isolation due to SARS-CoV2 infection or in prophylactic isolation ordered by the competent health authorities, may sit their assessment during an exceptional period to take place between 14 and 19 February 2022, upon presentation of the relevant certificate;
3. The provisions set forth in the previous item shall apply to students covered by item no.1 of the present Order who were not successful in the retake season.
4. For the duration of this Order, the norm stipulated in paragraph b) of no. 2 and no. 6 of article 151 of RAUM is suspended in all aspects that conflict with the present Order.

I hereby repeal RT Order-01/2022, of 7 January.

The Rector of the University of Minho
