Sponsor Prospectus

USENIX's LISA conference is the premier meeting place for professionals who make computing work efficiently across a variety of industries. If you're working with IT operations professionals, site-reliability engineers, system administrators, architects, software engineers, researchers, or otherwise involved in ensuring that IT services are effectively delivered to others—this is your conference, and we'd love to have you here.

The 6-day program includes invited talks, workshops, panels, AMA conversations, training courses, and refereed paper and poster presentations. The on-site Hack Lab will give attendees and speakers the opportunity to demo, collaborate, and test out new ideas. Evening receptions and Birds-of-a-Feather sessions provide opportunities to meet and network with those that share your interests.

Expected Attendance: 1,100+

Washington, D.C., 2013: 1,000

San Diego 2012: 1,051

Boston 2011: 1,262

Our attendees rate LISA #1 in technical conferences for quality of content and expertise.

"This was the best conference we exhibited at all year!"

"LISA is a fantastic, passionate, engaged community"

Our Attendees

- 75% work with three or more operating systems, including Linux, BSD releases, Solaris, MacOS, AIX, HP-UX, UNIX, and Windows
- 52% are from companies with 1,000+ employees
- 54% are from companies with 1,000 or more workstations and servers
- 48% plan to buy or recommend a product or service they saw in the Vendor Exhibition
- Come from over 30 different countries
